PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

LOVE, POWER, AND MONEY IN THE LIFE AND WORK OF THE ANALYST

AMY SPRAGUE CHAMPEAU [CANDIDATE, CSJA/CHICAGO]

In this workshop, we will bring money out of the shadows by exploring the role of money in our personal and professional lives. We will look at money from both personal and collective perspectives and address the clinical implications of money issues in the analytic vessel. We will engage this topic through the use of experiential exercises and active imagination. These exercises will be the catalyst for discussions and reflection as a group.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1 / 9:00 AM-12:00 PM / $___ / 3 CE HOURS

ADDICTED LOVE: THE CONJUNCTION OF EROS AND POWER

JULIE BONDANZA [ANALYST, JAWA/JUNGIAN ANALYSTS OF WASHINGTON ASSOCIATION]

Eros can take us to ecstatic heights, but also to the depths of despair especially when we have conflated Eros and power. As long as the connection between Eros and power stays in the shadow, the more we get lost in compulsive longing, destructive relationships and sexual addictions. In this workshop, we will struggle to understand the nature of Eros and erotic longing in both its sensual and spiritual aspects and will amplify our exploration with archetypal and clinical examples.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1 / 9:00 AM-12:00 PM / $___ / 3 CE HOURS

WANTING TO BE SEEN, LONGING TO BE LOVED: ART MAKING IN ANALYSIS

SONDRA GELLER [ANALYST, PAJA/PHILADELPHIA]

We will use tissue paper collage to draw us into psyche. The process is playful, creative and healing. Under the unconditionally accepting gaze of the analyst/witness, participants will learn how to make and then look deeply into colorful, expressive collages discovering the images hidden in the random shapes and colors. Working in this way recreates the fundamental dynamics of the mother-infant dyad where fed by the attuned maternal gaze the archetypal longing to be seen is mirrored. These experiences help to create temenos, a prerequisite for feeling loved and a catalyst for individuation.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1 / 1:30-4:30 PM / $___ / 3 CE HOURS

Where love reigns,
 there is no will to power:
 and where power predominates,
 there love is lacking.
 The one is the shadow of the other.

In addition to the rich content of the conference program, there are also many opportunities for socializing, informal discussion, and fun.

On Thursday, we will begin with conference check-in and a substantial reception preceding the evening presentation. Friday, Saturday, and Sunday mornings will start breakfast so that you can begin your day with good company and conversation. Saturday evening features a cocktail reception, dinner, and dancing. Concurrent Sessions on Friday and Saturday afternoons offer a variety of topics to choose from.

Four optional pre-conference workshops are offered on Thursday. The annual CNASJA Delegates Meeting will be held for two days, Wednesday and Thursday. All analysts are invited to the annual CNASJA Business Meeting on Thursday afternoon.

Friday evening is free for you to sample one of D.C.'s extraordinary restaurants. Have an unforgettable, entertaining opportunity to experience Washington politics at the source of power by going to a performance by Capitol Steps. Group tickets are available for this musical political satire by ex-congressional staffers for an additional fee.

We hope you will add extra time to your trip to explore the riches of D.C.

CONFERENCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

To provide clinicians with the current perspectives within Analytical Psychology on a variety of issues, both individual and collective, that bear on clinical practice, contemporary culture, and institutional life.

To provide clinicians with theoretical and clinical material to deepen the understanding of the psyche as it is experienced in analytic practice.

To provide a forum in which clinicians may exchange theoretical ideas and clinical experiences around the issues of individuation of both analyst and analysand in the course of the analytic journey.
